“It became clear to us that we could expand the marketing and outreach efforts with our members very effectively by using email. We studied and selected DeepTarget Email when we realized its benefits. It's a one stop shop for managing all email contacts, creating professional email messages, delivering them and finally for monitoring their effectiveness using robust campaign statistics”.

-- Mike Harden, COO, F&A Federal Credit Union

“I am totally impressed with DeepTarget Email – it is rich in features and has everything one would need in an email marketing solution, yet is also incredibly easy to use. The ability to filter your contacts so that we can target email messages is great for us. This product has the best reporting we've ever seen, and we've seen a lot. Plus the price is right. With DeepTarget Email, we got everything we asked for!”

-- Ben Boles, Director of Digital Media, Damson Automotive Group
